

Kathleen Y. Thomas

Managing Director,
Berkery, Noyes & Co., LLC

Kathleen Thomas joined Berkery, Noyes & Co., LLC in 2003 from Veronis Suhler Stevenson, where she served for nine years specializing in mergers and acquisitions advisory in the business-to-business media & information and marketing services segments, with expertise in publishing, tradeshows, conferences, marketing services and the outsourced services that support these businesses. She has been instrumental in the successful completion of over 60 transactions, including the acquisition of Randall-Reilly by Investcorp, the sale of WSA Global Holdings to ENK/Forstmann Little, BNP Media's acquisition of Stagnito, the sales of The Performance Institute to Thompson Publishing, Restore Media's Old House Journal and New Old House magazines to Active Interest Media, GovSec events and Fawcette Technical Publications & Conferences to 1105 Media, Forstmann Little's investment in ENK International, McGraw-Hill's Healthcare Information Group, Boucher Communications to Wolters Kluwer Health, National Roofing Contractors annual tradeshow, MedQuest Communications, Expoexchange tradeshow services, Asset Alternatives publications & conferences, Mealey's Publications & Conferences, among many others. In addition to her sell-side representation, Kathleen has very deep buy-side experience, advising Hanley-Wood in the acquisitions of Surfaces, NSPI, and Remodelers tradeshows, Journal of Light Construction, Pool & Spa, Aquatics, Multifamily Executive and Public Works magazines, among many other buy-side assignments. She holds a BA in Architecture from the University of North Carolina, Charlotte and an MBA from Baruch College.